You Are Blessed!

God listens to our prayers and blesses us. What does He expect of us – whether or not we are rewarded by others for it?

Place the letters of God in the boxes. Follow the lines to see where the letters belong.

“Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with

1) _____

It is possible to suffer for doing wrong or for doing right. It is better to suffer for doing right.

Complete the poem. Use a word from the list that rhymes with the underlined word in the line that follows it.

- | | | | |
|-----------|-------|---------|---------------|
| cries | spear | strong | wormwood |
| despise | fear | throng | misunderstood |
| criticize | cheer | furlong | could |
| lies | hear | wrong | should |

Punishment is in order
 when we do _____,
 But praises to the good belong.
 At times we are _____
 Even when we are doing good.
 People slander and _____,
 Bringing bitter tears to our eyes.
 Peter reminds us that we _____,
 In spite of them, do what's good.
 Not complain or suffer _____,
 But strive to keep our conscience clear.
